First Generation

1. John Warburton. John died in 1753. He was buried in Culcheth, Newchurch Parish Church, Lancashire, on 24 Mar 1753.

Although the Culcheth, Newchurch parish records begin before 1600 a continuous sequence of Warburtons only begins in 1722. Before that there is a single baptism in 1646, and two daughters of Thomas baptised in the 1690s. It is therefore assumed a Warburton family move to Culcheth in the early 18th century.

A sequence of children of John Warburton were baptised at Culcheth Newchurch between 1722 and 1744, including Thomas (1722), Alicia (1723), John (1728 burial, no baptism), John (1729), Isack (1732), Jane (1734), Margaret (1735), Elizabeth (1738), William (1741), and Charles (1744). The last of these may belong to the John of Culcheth who married Alice Marsh in (1741).

Abt 1720 John married Margaret. Margaret died in Culcheth, Lancashire, in 1752. She was buried in Culcheth, Newchurch Parish Church, Lancashire, on 15 Jun 1752.

Margaret was buried as the wife of John Warburton. No marriage record has been found.

The burial of Alies, daughter of John possibly refers to Alicia, or maybe another daughter. whose baptism is unknown.

The identity of John's wife is uncertain. Several Public Trees name Jane Wrigley but this marriage was in Bury in 1758, both too distant, and after the start of the sequence of baptisms of children of John at Culcheth Newchurch. A Betty who died in 1791 is also suggested but she is more likely to be Elizabeth Leather, wife of a John in the Houghton clan. The marriage to Mary Mather was 6 months before the sequence of baptisms, and identifies John as from Culcheth. However her burial has not yet been identified.

However in the 1921 census, taken on June 19th, Florence was single and living at home. There are no other obvious marriage or death records for Florence.
